THE BIG QUESTION

“WHY VIDEO?”

Wedding videography is often an afterthought. But, why? Well, most people are just unaware of the impact that an artful film, deep with rich storytelling, can have on them and generations to come.

An artistic wedding film is incomparable to photography because it will allow you and your family to relive the emotions of your wedding day forever. Imagine this: Watching your wedding film in 30 years, hearing the voices of loved ones who may no longer be with us, your children hearing your vows, and experiencing you in your youth, them handing down that video to your grandchildren.

And that's what I'm talking about. Wedding photography is a great snapshot of time. But, your wedding video will give you the ability to travel in time.

Now, what could your custom-tailored filmmaking experience look like?

SERVICES GUIDE

You want your wedding film to be as timeless as Audrey Hepburn, yet break the mold of "luxury" wedding videos.

One that resembles the notoriety of Barbara Palvin's countryside wedding in Hungary or Taylor Lautner's gorgeous wedding in the vineyards of California.

But, most luxury wedding videographers are stuck in the same box—lacking cinematic depth, storytelling, and the authentic allure that can showcase your authentic personalities.

As indie wedding filmmakers, we break the industry's traditional standards—turning your gorgeous wedding day into a timeless story resembling stars like Humphrey Bogart.

“Luxury” Meets Indie.

Your first-class wedding film deserves Dom Pérignon standards that meet your champagne taste but isn't limited to the industry status quo.

Love Notes

Tristan was our wedding videographer and we could not have been happier! He worked within our budget to give us so much more than we could've gotten with another team. He took the time and care to get to know us as a couple and portray that in our wedding film. He was a professional and fun presence on our wedding day and just made us feel very loved and taken care of. 10/10 recommend!

David & Stephanie

Tristan did a phenomenal job at being both the photographer and videographer for our wedding. We couldn't be happier with the end product, especially since we received the video and photos extremely fast and within a great budget! He was able to capture the emotion and the best moments of our special day. He was also willing to travel two hours to our venue on the day of the wedding and a week before our wedding day to see the venue. Great man, great company!

Radu & Silvia

We hired Tristan & Megan to do our wedding videography. Everything was so simple & well-coordinated, even with our photographer. Tristan & Megan were first-class—from the initial meeting to the final product. And then we received our video. Tears ran down my face. And still do when we relive this movie-theater-like experience. Beautiful scenes & quick turnaround for delivering our masterpiece. They'll do the same for you.
